

Please consider the effects of your ruling Monday on the good of the people - power over a greater percentage of media held in the hands of a few is harmful to the growth of the nation - ideas and culture are increasingly shaped by media, so fewer outlets means fewer voices.